"When we let freedom ring, when we let it ring from every tenement and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old spiritual, "Free at last, free at last. Thank God Almighty, we are free at last."

— Martin Luther King, Jr.

"We must learn to live together as brothers or perish together as fools."

"Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere."

"Every man must decide whether he will walk in the light of creative altruism or in the darkness of destructive selfishness."

"An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity."
