ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The International Conference on Refractories, Jamshedpur (ICRJ) is organized by Indian Ceramic Society, Jamshedpur Chapter and Tata Steel. It serves as a global hub for cutting-edge insights and advancements in refractory technology. With a legacy spanning 16 years, ICRJ has emerged as a confluence of industry titans, manufacturers, researchers, and end-users.

The conference provides a dynamic stage for delving into challenges, fostering collaboration, and disseminating knowledge defining the forefront of refractory innovation.

As we gear up for the 8th edition in March 2024, get ready to witness an unparalleled gathering of professionals from around the globe to share innovations in refractory, metallurgy, and related fields.

Join this exclusive forum where thought leaders converge to explore the latest developments in the field of Research, application practices, refractory recycling, energy conservation, carbon footprint reduction, raw material scenario, and various other interesting subjects. Elevate your understanding, engage in technical exchanges, and contribute to a collective vision that shapes the trajectory of our industry.
